GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY
OF THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST
OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS

BRIEF HISTORY OF HOLT COUNTY MISSOURI

In 1839 the territory in the Platte Purchase north of Buchanan County was organized into the "Territory" of "Ne-at-a-wah," and attached to Buchanan County. It included the present counties of Andrew, Holt, Atchison and Nodaway. In 1841 this territory was subdivided and the county of Nodaway organized. A few weeks later the General Assembly changed the name to Holt, in honor of Honorable David Rice Holt, the representative from Platte County, who had died during the session, and who was buried at Jefferson City. Oregon, the county seat, was laid out in 1841, and at first called Finley.

The early members of the General Assembly from Holt County were Richard L. Barkhurst in 1842; Stephen Cooper in 1844; James Craig in 1846; James Foster in 1848; John W. Kelly in 1850-54; Samuel Watson in 1856; Samuel R. Young in 1858; Galin Crow in 1860; A. G. Hollister in 1862-64; Ira C. Buzick in 1867; John H. Glenn in 1869; H. K. S. Robinson in 1871-73; John Sorantz in 1875; Richard Markland in 1877; Bryant C. Cowan in 1879; James Limbird in 1881; Jonas Whitmer in 1883; Edgar J. Kellogg in 1885; Luke R. Knowles in 1887; Henry T. Alkire in 1889; W. A. Gwinn in 1891; W. F. Murray in 1893-95; Sam F. O'Fallon in 1897-99-1903-19-21; George W. Hibbard in 1901; Frank K. Allen in 1905; George W. Glick in 1907; H. B. Lawrence in 1909-11; William R. Swope in 1913-15;

John H. Kunkel in 1917; Lester Hodgin in 1923; Fred Lawrence in 1925-27-29; George R. Murray in 1931-33.

The Democrats of Holt County deserve great credit for keeping up an aggressive organization, and among those who have contributed to this are the following: W. E. Stubbs, Dr. J. L. Minton, David D. Stallard, Martin L. Norman, C. M. Childers, Robert Minton, Cave Hunt, R. E. Terhune, Lori Thompson, J. W. McClanahan, A. G. Young, Len Walters, H. C. Cook, Van Taylor, W. J. Randall, Thomas Hines, Alen G. Stanley, G. W. Poynter, Dr. E. M. Miller, L. P. Watson, Jess Cain, Charles Bunker, Lem Walter, Hugh Brohan, Carlyle Randall, Robert Ruley, George W. Rhoades, Charles Graves, Carl Harrison, Joseph Garrett, John Coughlin, R. W. Falks and Claud Dearmont.

For many years there have been very few Democrats elected to office in Holt County. In 1928 the vote for United States Senator in the county was Patterson, 3,647; Hay, 2,172, a majority for Patterson of 1,475. In 1932 the vote for the same office was Bennett Champ Clark, 3,127; Henry Kiel, 2,235, a majority for Clark of 1892.

L. R. Bagby, editor of the Craig Leader, deserves special mention for his intensive work for the Party in Holt County and Northwest Missouri.
